

Biographies

Christopher Timmons

Senior Assistant District Attorney, Public Integrity Unit
DeKalb County District Attorney's Office

Christopher Timmons is a Senior Assistant District Attorney in the Public Integrity Unit of the DeKalb County District Attorney's Office, where he investigates and prosecutes elected and appointed public officials. Chris has been a prosecutor for nearly 13 years and has jury tried cases ranging from speeding to murder. He has argued several cases before the Georgia Court of Appeals and the Georgia Supreme Court. For the past 6 years Chris has been an adjunct professor at the Georgia State University College of Law, where he teaches Lawyering: Advocacy. Prior to becoming a prosecutor, Chris was an associate in the litigation departments at Taft, Stettinius & Hollister in Cincinnati, Ohio and King & Spalding here in Atlanta. Chris earned his J.D. from Vanderbilt Law School in 1996 and his B.A. in Economics from Miami University in 1993.

Kevin O. Fogle

Paralegal, Corporate and International Practice Groups
Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP

Kevin O. Fogle, is a paralegal in the Corporate and International practice groups of the Atlanta office of Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP. At Nelson Mullins, Kevin assists in providing legal services to both foreign and domestic companies transacting business in the United States and abroad. Kevin works closely with attorneys in assisting foreign companies with inbound foreign direct investments through mergers and acquisitions and setting up U.S. subsidiaries for foreign parent companies. Kevin also handles general corporate matters, assists in the protection of intellectual property, and works on matters involving immigration and securities. He has been a contributing writer for GAP's publication, The Paragraph, and the National Federation of Paralegal Association's publication, The National Paralegal Reporter. Kevin is a graduate of the National Center for Paralegal Training's ABA-approved paralegal studies program. In addition, Kevin holds a BS in Interdisciplinary Studies with concentrations in Behavioral Sciences, Social Sciences, and Business and a MBA in International Business from the New York Institute of Technology. Kevin is also a third year law student at Atlanta's John Marshall Law School with an expected graduation date of December 2016.

Sabrina Henry

Paralegal, Immigration
Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP

Sabrina D. Henry is a Senior Immigration Specialist at Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, LLP. She possesses over 15 years of experience as a paralegal with a specialization in immigration law. She was awarded a Bachelor's degree in Business Education from Bernard M. Baruch College, City University of New York. In addition, she participated in a student-exchange program at the University of Ghana at Legon, where she studied Women's Involvement in Economic Development. She is also pursuing a Master's degree in Instructional Technology.

Sabrina currently serves as Vice President of the Georgia Association of Paralegals, Inc. ("GAP") and the Primary Georgia Representative for the National Federation of Paralegal Associations ("NFPA"). She has served on GAP's Board since 2011. She is also an instructor in the Paralegal Program at the College of Professional and Continuing Education at Kennesaw State University, where she facilitates the Fundamentals of Immigration Law for Paralegals. She also speaks at seminars and conferences on the paralegal's role in immigration law, the paralegal profession, and leadership. Sabrina is an incessant educator as she enjoys sharing her knowledge with others and imparting her love, interest, and fascination with immigration law.

Prior to her paralegal career, Sabrina was a High School Business Technology Teacher with the New York City Board of Education and was very much involved in incorporating technology throughout the core curriculum. Sabrina is happily married and has two young sons.

Tony Rushin

Vice President, Sales & Marketing
Network 1 Consulting, Inc.

Tony joined Network 1 in September, 2010 as employee #8 and runs sales & marketing. He has spent 25+ years in high-technology, from IBM to start-ups. Tony brings his broad experience in business development, marketing and business strategy to Network 1's leadership team, clients and partners. He has spoken on several occasions and on numerous technology topics at the Atlanta Association of Legal Administrators (AALA) and the Atlanta Bar Association. He leads Network 1's participation with the AALA, the ABA Family Law Section, and the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation (AVLF). His passion is to help people achieve greatness, however they define it.

Toni Nunn

American Express, Meetings & Events

Toni Nunn, a Certified Meeting Professional with American Express Global Business Travel, provides hotel and venue sourcing services for Professional Firms, Corporations, and Associations, looking to utilize our complimentary sourcing services for trials, group meetings, partner and associate retreats around the globe. With the ability to support clients in nearly 140 countries worldwide, American Express Global Business Travel is one of the largest corporate Travel Management Companies (TMCs) by volume in the world. In 2014, we managed over 44,000 meetings and more than 3.9 million room nights for our clients. Toni spent numerous years working in the financial sector managing the financial relationships of large law firms headquartered in Southeast. She served as the Managing Director of the Legal Specialty Group for Wells Fargo, formally known as Wachovia Bank.